

Der satanarchäolügenialkohöllische Wunschpunsch

Zauberposse von Michael Ende

Weihnachtsstück für alle ab 6 Jahren

It is New Year's Eve! And a few hours before midnight the evil Wizard Beelzebub Irrwitzer and his aunt, the Witch Tyrannja are visited by a hellish representative of the Prince of Darkness, the Devil himself. He informs them, that they haven't fulfilled their annual quota of evil deeds! To fulfill their contracts with the Devil a wicked plan is needed to wipe out a few dozen animal species, to poison as many rivers as possible and to turn humans against each other before the clock strikes midnight. Tyrannja has an idea: A potion, that grants wishes! You drink a glass of this Notion Potion, rhyme your wish and it will come true. Tyrannja even has one half of the recipe. Irrwitzer the other. Together they start brewing.

Luckily, nature is already fighting back against these evil two. The High Council of the animals has sent the tomcat Maurizio and the raven Jacob to spy on Irrwitzer and Tyrannja. But Maurizio and Jacob first have to overcome the natural enmity between cats and birds bevor they can work together. But with the help of the saint of New Year's Eve, St. Sylvester, they manage to undo the impact of the Notion Potion. St. Sylvester gifts them with a single note from his New-Year's-Bellringing. For only this sound can destroy the Notion Potion and save the world from evil.
